

Studioszene 2023 in Hamburg – Masterclass Programm

STUDIOSZENE 2023 - The Program 17th – 19th October | Messe Hamburg

You are an audio engineer, producer, songwriter, home recorder or want to get into music production, then you have to come to the Studioszene 2023! Internationally and nationally successful producers and engineers will show you how to take your producing, mixing and mastering skills to the next level!

This time the Studioszene will be joined by: Jaycen Joshua (Beyoncé, Snoop Dogg), Warren Huart (Produce Like A Pro), Purple Disco Machine, Moritz Enders (Silbermond), Jill Zimmermann (Alexisonfire), Quarterhead (Robin Schulz), Stefan Betke (Depeche Mode, Alphaville), Hans-Martin Buff (Scorpions, Peter Gabriel) and Wanja Bierbaum (Nina Chuba). More names will follow! And yes, it takes place in Germany but there will be a lot of masterclasses, workshops and panels in English. Another highlight: On all three days, visitors will be catered for with drinks and food, and this is even included in the ticket price! The Studioszene is a relaxed experience for you that you just have to enjoy.
